

Secure Your Brand and Protect Future Employees

The FBI warns job scams are on the rise¹ and cyber criminals are using domain spoofing to impersonate your brand. Registering .Jobs domain names defends against job-related fraud.

Job Seekers Trust .Jobs

As a legacy TLD we are known by job seekers.

Amazon, AT&T, and Indeed utilize .Jobs domain names to create unique websites for job seekers while protecting their brand from malicious cyber criminals.

Direct from the Registry
Lowest Price GUARANTEED

Newly Available .Jobs Domains

We have expanded the pool of available .Jobs domain names to include acronyms, keywords, and dictionary words.

Websites using .Jobs domain names generate billions of pageviews monthly²

The keyword "jobs" is used 15x more often in online job searches than "careers"³

.Jobs is the #1 trending top level domain for job and career related Google searches⁴

Phishing

Criminals use domains to impersonate companies in an effort to phish job seekers' Personally Identifiable Information.

Fraud

In addition to damaging their credit score, job scam victims lose nearly $3,000¹ per incident on fraudulent domains.

Diversion

Spoofed domains are used by criminals to confuse job seekers. 51%⁵ of companies say they have been impacted by traffic diversion.

Branding

Fraudsters post fake jobs on branded domains. Online fraud costs companies, worldwide, over $1 trillion⁶ annually.

Visit secure.jobs to search available domain names and secure your brand.

www.secure.jobs

¹ FBI, Alert #: I-012120-PSA 2020

² Google Analytics, 2020

³ Ahrefs keyword volume comparison, June 2020

⁴ Google Trends, "jobs" keyword analysis, Rising Topic, June 2020

⁵ & ⁶ Vitresous World Report, April 2019